Doug Zanes has been practicing law since 1997 and is licensed to practice in all state, county, and local courts within the state of Arizona. Mr. Zanes is also certified and admitted to practice within the United States District Courts for the District of Arizona, and he is certified and admitted to represent clients in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Since beginning his practice, Mr. Zanes and his law firm have litigated thousands of cases within these courts by representing clients in jury trials, bench trials, and other forms of alternate dispute resolution in order to resolve his clients' legal claims and problems. In addition, he has handled numerous federal appellate cases and was the prevailing attorney in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit published opinion in [United States v. Hernandez-Castellanos, 287 F.3d 876 (9th Cir. 04/25/2002)]. Additionally, Mr. Zanes speaks Spanish fluently and takes great pride in his ability to represent Spanish-speaking clients without the use of an outside interpreter.

While Mr. Zanes handles personal injury cases ranging from minor accidents involving soft-tissue damage to catastrophic injury accidents and wrongful death cases, he focuses a great deal of his time on representing victims of traumatic brain injuries. He has found great satisfaction in helping these clients, who will suffer the lifelong effects of traumatic brain injuries, obtain the justice they deserve.
